

About our Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. In this privacy policy, we inform you about the way in which we process personal data, for which purpose we process personal data, how you can exercise privacy rights and other information about how we handle personal data.

This privacy policy applies to all activities on the website of Marvia B.V.. If you have any questions regarding this policy, please contact us at support@getmarvia.com.

Which personal data do we collect?

We process the personal data that you provide to us via the website, for example when you fill in the contact form or when you subscribe to our newsletter. These include:

- Personal details such as name, telephone number, email address, company name, function;
- Interaction data such as IP address, surfing behaviour on the website, click behaviour, location data, and cookie ID.

For what purpose does Marvia process personal data?

We process personal data for:

- Service, to respond to messages that you have addressed to us, for example after completing the contact form;
- Marketing, such as promotional purpose. This includes, for example, sending newsletters or electronic messages on advertising networks and social media channels such as Facebook and LinkedIn;
- Development & analysis, to further develop and improve our website and to adapt our range of products and services to your preferences.

Retention period of your data

We do not retain personal data longer than necessary for the above-mentioned purposes. The retention period depends on the purpose for which the personal data is used. After your personal data is no longer necessary, it will be anonymised or deleted.

Third parties

Marvia B.V. does not sell your information to third parties and will only provide it if this is necessary for the execution of our agreement with you or to comply with a legal obligation.

With companies that process your data in our assignment, we conclude a data processing agreement to ensure the same level of security and confidentiality of your data. Marva B.V. remains responsible for these processing operations.

View, correct or delete data

You have the right to view, correct or delete your personal data. You can send a request for access, correction or deletion to support@marvia.com

In order to ensure that the request for access has been made by you, we ask you to send a copy of your identity document with the request. In this copy, we ask you to blacken your passport photo, MRZ (machine readable zone, the numbers at the bottom of your passport), passport number and citizen service number. This to protect your privacy.

Marvia B.V. will respond to your request as soon as possible but within four weeks.

Cookies

Cookies are small (text) files that are sent with pages from websites and stored on your computer or smartphone and that simplify, complete or personalize the use of the website. The information stored in the cookies can be returned to our servers on a subsequent visit.

Marvia uses the following types of cookies:

- Necessary cookies. These cookies help the website to function properly. These cookies make the website safer and support the basic functions of the website.
- Functional cookies. These cookies are used to store preferences of the website such as language or country and whether you are already registered for the newsletter.
- Analytical cookies. We use analytical cookies to analyse how visitors use our website. For example, we keep track of how visitors use our website and how long they stay on certain pages. We use the information we receive through Google Analytics in order to improve the user experience of the website.

Disable and delete cookies

You can change the cookie settings of your browser at any time. You can disable the storage of cookies or delete stored cookies in the browser, but this can lead to reduced functionality, delay or usability of certain parts of the website. Adjusting your cookies settings differs per browser. You can consult the 'Help function'. In your browser.

If you specifically want to block Google Analytics cookies, you can install Google's special Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on.

Because some cookies are necessary for the proper functioning of our website, we cannot guarantee that you can use the website properly if you block certain cookies. Refusing advertising cookies does not mean that you will no longer see advertisements, only that they are no longer adapted to your interests and can be repeated more often.
